

Becky's Biography

Becky Marchant is the co-founder of California Out-of-State & International College Fairs. She has organized over 25 college fairs and related events in the Southern California area. She is an executive board member and former President of the Orange County Chapter of the California Association of School Counselors, an organization of educational professionals, guidance counselors, college advisors and local educational leaders based in Southern California.

She works as the lead counselor, ACT Testing Supervisor and Intern Coordinator at Brea Olinda High School, which has the only high school guidance program in the nation to be honored as a Recognized ASCA Model Program (R.A.M.P) an unprecedented four times. Becky also serves as an independent college consultant, specializing in the University of California System, W.U.E. and international college admissions. She holds a California Pupil Personnel Service Credential as well as teaching credentials in Spanish, English as a Second Language, Cross Cultural Education and Photography. She is bilingual in Spanish and English.

Becky's professional life encompasses 12 years of teaching experience, 23 years of high school guidance counseling and seven years as an officer of her regional counseling chapter. She is a member of the California Association of School Counselors, the Western Association of College Admissions Counselors and the American School Counselor Association. In 2011, she was honored as the 'Counselor of the Year' for the State of California. She is a passionate advocate of providing a wide range of college options and access to higher education for all students.