

California Out-of-State & International (COSI) College Fairs

in collaboration with is offering the opportunity for educators and graduate students to earn an

Introduction to WUE and Out-of-State College Advising Micro Credential

EXPLORE the essential aspects of advising students who are considering studying out-of-state

DISCOVER an expanded array of educational options beyond the CSU, UC and CC Systems

BECOME an ADVOCATE for students looking for tuition savings with WUE, access to typically impacted majors and the ability to graduate in four years

Lynda McGee, LAUSD Downtown Magnets College Counselor

“ ... I spent time talking to colleges about special programs and full-ride scholarships. Next year I will focus on international schools! ”

Micro Credential Time and Cost

- one-hour online component
- one-hour COSI college fair visitation and summary.

$25.00 for professional educators
$15.00 for graduate students

2016 COSI College Fair Schedule

- October 6 & 7 at Placentia-Yorba Linda USD
- October 11 at Cypress Community Center
- October 12 at Moreno Valley Conference Center
- October 13 at Western Christian HS
- October 14 at Hacienda Heights Community Center

CERTIFICATE OBJECTIVES

Out-of-State

Explore beyond California

Improve College Fit

Learn WUE Basics

Expand College Options

CERTIFICATION PROCESS

Register at outofstatecollegefairs.org

Complete the one-hour online component and email responses at least 10 days prior to the fair.

Attend a COSI fair for one hour and complete a summary of your visitations with college reps.

Receive your certificate via email.

We are a dedicated team of Southern California educators committed to presenting a variety of college options to high school students. Our college fairs focus on public and private out-of-state colleges and universities, W.U.E. institutions and international universities.

www.outofstatecollegefairs.org

For more information, please contact us at:

outofstatecollegefairs@gmail.com